

Balloon Festival

Up, up, up and away! That explains the balloon on the shop rooftops. Now we're soaring high! Pass two gentlemen explorers flying towards the desert in search of strange creatures. Mr X can be seen floating away in the biggest balloon. Blown by the strong wind, he is making rapid progress. Where will he come down?

BALLOON ENTHUSIAST'S COMMENTS

This year's Balloon Festival is spectacular! There's a studded balloon, an ice cream-shaped balloon, and a pirate balloon with skull and crossbones. Wow! There's even a flying house! Have fun finding them!

From the Balloon Association

Today is the annual Balloon Festival. However, this year, it seems that nine aeroplanes are trying to take part. Can you find them and avert the potential danger to the festival? Thank you.

Request from a Countess

My best feather hat has been blown away in the wind. Surely Mr X has played a trick on me! As it is my favourite hat, please do your best to find it for me.
