

The book cover is a vibrant, hand-illustrated scene set against a teal background. In the center is a large, circular world map with continents in orange and oceans in light blue. A mermaid with long red hair and a white and red patterned tail is perched on the map. The title 'THE MERMAID ATLAS' is written in large, bold, dark blue letters across the map. Below the title, the authors' names 'ANNA CLAYBOURNE' and 'MIREN ASIAIN LORA' are listed in smaller, white, sans-serif capital letters. The cover is surrounded by various sea creatures and plants. On the left, a tall green seaweed stalk grows from a brown rock, with a small blue mermaid clinging to it. A red starfish is on the rock. In the bottom left, there are yellow and brown coral-like structures with a small green frog on one. In the center bottom, a white merman with a yellow trident stands among colorful coral. To the right, a mermaid with long black hair and a blue and black patterned tail is perched on a brown rock. Above her, a green frog-like creature is on a rock. In the top right, a mermaid with a red and white patterned tail is swimming. A large, orange and white nautilus shell is in the bottom right. The overall style is whimsical and artistic.
