

Frida Kahlo

the artist who wanted to show
reality through creative arts

TODAY I AM... someone who wants to show my own reality through creativity and art.
Inspired by the brilliant artist, Frida Kahlo, your self-awareness challenge is to:

- * create a selfie style image that captures both your inner and outer life; what makes you, you?
- * decide on what things you would represent from your life and how you would want to represent them
- * decide on your medium – photography, painting, collage
- * be creative and show the world who you are!
