

Index of Questions

1. Why is the world most beautiful at twilight?
2. Thresholds: wouldn't it be nice to get rid of them?
3. How long will modernity be dressed in glass?
4. When does architecture become sensual?
5. Can't we design buildings to look like they used to?
6. Do buildings really have memories?
7. What makes cities so fascinating?
8. Doesn't technology determine everything?
9. What caused the crisis in architecture?
10. Is there some kind of universal formula?
11. Do architects have to think of everything?
12. How long should buildings last?
13. Buildings frame our lives. But can life ever be predictable?
14. Someone took my idea. Should I be upset?
15. Are natural materials better than imitations?
16. Does history have a future?
17. Can architecture be mass-produced?
18. Is architecture necessary?
19. Does architecture develop?
20. How can an architect become famous?
21. Why do people look at buildings when they're traveling?
22. I read all the magazines and blogs. Is there anything I might have overlooked?
23. Does it have to be expensive?
24. Can you own a view?
25. Is it important to get published?
26. Do books give you a sharper view?
27. What protects us from becoming blind to everyday wonders?

28. What do buildings sound like?
29. Are all churches architecture?
30. Why do architects want to paint the world white?
31. Can a rich architecture be affordable?
32. What is the worst thing about architecture today?
33. What is the best thing about architecture today?
34. How is a beautiful façade composed?
35. What is the point of regulations?
36. Is architecture the spice of life or its sustenance?
37. Is higher density always a good thing?
38. Art always wants to do the opposite. Is it the same with architecture?
39. Should architects build on the best place on the site?
40. Who was the first architect?
41. How are the conditions for architecture where I live?
42. Is it strange that we long to get away sometimes?
43. Must we demolish beautiful buildings and scenic vistas in order to urbanize?
44. A swimming pool lined with fake fur? Sounds terrible, doesn't it?
45. What is the cleverest way to save money?
46. Why is there so much prestige attached to an opera house?
47. What is stone?
48. Why are ruins so beautiful?
49. What is architecture?
50. What does urban mean?
51. Why is it so hard to make good cities?
52. What is the point of architectural competitions?
53. Is it okay to repeat yourself?
54. The opportunities seem infinite. If an architect could highlight just one quality, what should it be?
55. Where does form come from?
56. What role does politics play?
57. Has architecture become international?
58. Does a place have a soul?
59. What is the world's most admired building?
60. How small can a home be?
61. How do architects win competitions?
62. What is a good plan?
63. Is there something special about marble?

64. Why is uncompromising architecture so good?
65. Why is uncompromising architecture so bad?
66. What is the point of details?
67. What is the significance of tuberculosis?
68. I like interiors that are bright and cheery. Who doesn't?
69. What is noise?
70. What makes old factories so cool?
71. Is architecture natural?
72. Do buildings have character?
73. Are words necessary? Isn't it enough just to design?
74. Does architecture have a moral?
75. What is simplicity?
76. Is it possible to age gracefully?
77. Is it more important to follow the style of the place than the style of the time?
78. Rebellious music often has weight and power. Is there anything similar in architecture?
79. Have computers changed architecture?
80. Should buildings be visible from a distance?
81. Is there anything more important than energy?
82. Is Dubai a city?
83. All of our new residential buildings look like they've been cloned. Wouldn't a little variation brighten things up?
84. What is a room?
85. How can strict be a compliment?
86. Open or closed floor plan?
87. Were modernism's missionaries mistaken?
88. What is parametric design?
89. Is the architect an authoritarian?
90. Why all these changes? Can't architects just do it right from the start?
91. Why build a model when we have computers?
92. Is five better than four?
93. Some buildings are hard to understand. What should I do?
94. What is an architect?
95. Doesn't the answer lie in the surroundings?
96. Is there a difference between a road and a street?
97. Who decides what architecture is?
98. Wouldn't it be natural for buildings to be a little softer?
99. What would a checklist of all the desirable qualities be like?
100. Any advice about how to make home a little nicer?
101. What does architecture do for us?